

This week the children have been busy making Christmas decorations to sell at the Christmas Fayre tonight. We have to say – they all look amazing and the children have done a fantastic job!

Our Christmas tree has arrived, thank you to Ioni for collecting it, and to Lorna and tom for putting it up.

We hope that with the children's amazing tree decorations that we may well be in with a chance of winning Mole Valleys Christmas tree decoration competition. The photos will be put in the store's foyer from the 12th December, just in time for their late-night shopping and Reindeer! So if you are going to Mole Valley in South Molton, please vote for our tree .

Back to school

We have a busy couple of weeks left of the term before we break up for the Christmas holidays. The Nativity will be on Wednesday 11th December at Rackenford All Saints Church. This will begin at 2pm and we will be joined by the Little Angels children – we hope many of you can make it.

Our Christmas Disco will be on Friday 13th December 3.45-5.30pm. Children are welcome to bring their party clothes (or fancy dress) with them to school which they can then get changed into at the end of the day. We have decided to do the disco at no cost as a thank you for all your help this term, although donations of drinks and party food would be much appreciated!

On Tuesday 17th, the children will have a day of Christmas fun, making crafts, playing games and making their Christmas hats to wear for their Christmas Lunch. If you would like to come along and help on this day, then please do let us know, you can also stay for Christmas Lunch at a reduced cost of £1. Christmas Lunch will be Roast Turkey, Vegetarian Roast with Ice-cream for pudding.

Finally, on Wednesday 18th the whole school will be heading to Northcott Theatre to watch Beauty & The Beast. Before we leave, there will be a Big Breakfast in the hall. If you would like to attend the Breakfast – then please book in - Adults £3 children £2.30, Key stage 1 and FSM children will still have this free

Piano Concert

On Tuesday 10th December Mabdy grant and all of her Piano students will be performing a concert for us to show what they have learnt. Parents of these children are welcome to come in and watch. It will start at 1.30pm.

Tuck Shop

Thank you to all who have supported our tuck shop this term, so far, we have raised £83.26. As it is the last one next Friday, Miss Horrell will be doing Christmas themed festive snacks including Bacon Rolls, Pasta & Turkey pots and Roast Potato Pots as well as other snacks.

PGL Residential

The final payment of £46 for the residential to Beam house is now due by Friday 10th January
