Well done to everyone who came wearing “something spotty” We raised £54.50

Little Angels

This week the children have been exploring safeguarding. They have been working from the book My Underpants Rule! By Kate & Rod Power. The children have been learning about kitchen safety with baking pizzas, exploring the village with a focus on road safety, looking at clothes we wear in different weathers and practicing our listening to others as its important that children feel valued and heard. What an amazing week!
